TEXAS ASSOCIATION OF FUTURE EDUCATORS COMPETITIVE EVENTS

GENERAL INFORMATION FOR ALL EVENTS

Failure to follow stated guidelines may result in disqualification of students competing.

For a complete list you can view the TAFE Policies and Procedures.

To be eligible to compete in TAFE or Educators Rising events, students must complete all of the following requirements:

- Maintain an active Educators Rising membership for the current school year. TAFE State dues must be paid in full by November 1. Visit the Educators Rising Membership Page for membership information and requirements.
- Register to attend either their TAFE Area Conference or the TAFE Teach Tomorrow Summit. Please note that conference registration does not automatically register students for competitive events.
- Register for competitive events and submit all required materials by the deadlines outlined on the TAFE Guidelines & Rubrics page available on the TAFE website.

GENERAL RULES & REGULATIONS

NOTE: General rules and regulations apply to all competitive events and are in addition to each event's specific guidelines.

Eligibility

- Competitors must be paid, active Educators Rising student members prior to competing at an Area or State Conference.
- Competitors may participate in up to three (3) events, with no more than two (2) national qualifying events.
 - The ELF Test, Student of the Year, and Breakout Session do not count toward the three-event limit.
- Competitive event entries will not be accepted after the Area Conference registration deadline.
- Area Conference Advancement to State
 - Competitions: Students must first earn at least 70% of the available points. From those meeting the minimum score requirement, the top five (5) competitors will advance to the Teach Tomorrow Summit.
 - Contests: Students must earn at least 90% of the total possible points to advance to the Teach Tomorrow Summit.
- State Conference Advancement to Nationals
 - Competitions: Students must first earn at least 80% of the available points. From those meeting the minimum score requirement, the top ten (10) competitors will advance to the Educators Rising National Conference.
 - Contests: Students must earn at least 97% of the total possible points to advance to the Educators Rising National Conference.
 - Students who qualify for the Educators Rising National Conference may compete in only one (1) event at the national level.

Competitive Event Entries

- All submitted materials must be original work created during the 2026–2027 school year. Materials created, submitted, or used in previous years are not eligible. To verify originality, competitors must complete and submit a Statement of Originality for each event in which they participate.

TEXAS ASSOCIATION OF FUTURE EDUCATORS COMPETITIVE EVENTS

- Each competitive event guideline will specify the materials required for submission prior to the conference. Failure to submit all required materials by the published deadline may result in point deductions. All files must be uploaded using the competitor's FORM ID as listed in the Teach Tomorrow Summit (TTS) Database.
- Any video files required for advance submission must be uploaded to YouTube, and the appropriate video link must be submitted according to event guidelines.

Levels of Competition

- The grade-level classifications below are used to determine eligibility and placement for competitive events. Not all events are open to every division; competitors should refer to the specific event guidelines to confirm eligible divisions.
- For team events, teams with members from multiple grade levels must register in the division of the highest-grade (most senior) team member. Competitors who register or compete in an incorrect division will be subject to disqualification.
- Divisions
 - Middle School - Grades 7 & 8
 - Junior Varsity - Grades 9 & 10
 - Varsity - Grades 11 & 12
 - Collegiate - Undergraduate college students (dual-credit high school students are not eligible for this division)
 - Special Edition - Designed for students with an IEP who require accommodation(s) to participate in competitive events. This division provides opportunities for students to compete in an environment that supports their individual needs.

Substitutions

- Substitutions are not permitted for individual events after conference registration has closed.
- Substitutions are permitted for team and dual events after registration has closed, subject to the following requirements:
 - A team or dual-event entry may be modified only if at least one of the original competitors remains on the roster.
 - Any replacement competitor must complete and submit a Competitive Event Change Form.
 - Substitutions must not change the division in which the team or dual event is registered. If a substitution results in the team competing in a different division, the entry will be disqualified.
- The number of competitors that compete in each level of competition is what is allowed to advance to the next level of competition.
- Failure to notify the Competitive Events Team of any approved substitution may result in the disqualification of the team or dual-event entry.

Technology and Equipment Requirements

- Competitors are responsible for bringing their own device to Area and State Conferences for competitive events. Prior to arriving at the conference, students should verify that their device is fully functional and capable of connecting to Wi-Fi networks outside their school district.
- All devices should be fully charged before reporting to the competition room. Competitors are encouraged to bring charging cords and any necessary accessories.
- Cell phones are not permitted in planning rooms unless specifically authorized as an accommodation or required by event guidelines.

TEXAS ASSOCIATION OF FUTURE EDUCATORS COMPETITIVE EVENTS

- Wi-Fi access is not guaranteed at all conference venues. Competitors must ensure that all presentations, videos, and supporting materials are downloaded and accessible offline prior to the event.
- Presentation technology, including screens and projectors, is guaranteed only at the State Conference.
 - Competitors are responsible for providing any adapters, connectors, or dongles necessary to connect their devices to available projection equipment.
- All presentations, presentation resources, and video files should be prepared for offline use, as internet access may be limited or unavailable at some conference locations.

Conference Registration, Attendance, & Participation in Events

- Teacher Leaders must log in to the TAFE website and complete conference registration for the event they plan to attend. Conference registration does not automatically register students for competitive events. Teacher Leaders must follow the procedures outlined on the TAFE website to register students for their selected competitive events.
- Students whose Teacher Leader fail to complete conference registration and/or competitive event registration by the published deadline will not be eligible to attend the conference or participate in competition.
- Competitors are expected to adhere to the professional dress standards outlined in the Dress Code. Students who are not in compliance with the dress code will not be permitted to compete. Participation in any TAFE-sponsored event or conference constitutes agreement to abide by the established dress code requirements.
- Judges' decisions and scores are final. TAFE does not offer a score inquiry, appeal, or review process. Teacher Leaders, chaperones, parents, and other attendees may not approach judges or Competitive Events Headquarters to discuss scores, rankings, or feedback. Any questions or concerns should be directed to TAFE staff and/or conference officers. Schools or districts found in violation of this policy may lose their Good Standing status with the TAFE association.
- Competition schedules will be followed as closely as possible; however, events may run ahead of or behind schedule throughout the day. Competitors are responsible for monitoring all official TAFE communications and announcements to ensure they are aware of any schedule updates and do not miss their assigned competition times.

Designation of Awards

- Students will receive awards based on the number of points scored on the event rubric. All State Qualifiers will be recognized on screen during the Closing General Session at Area Conferences. NATIONAL GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

NOTE: General rules and regulations apply to all national competitive events and are in addition to each event's specific guidelines. Guidelines are subject to change. Please refer to the EdRising Membership Portal for the latest version.

Failure to follow the stated guidelines will result in disqualification of the student competing.

Students intending to compete at the Educators Rising National Conference must complete 3 required steps:

1. Be an Active-level paid national member of Educators Rising for the current school year. State-level membership must be paid, if applicable. Click here to join.
2. Complete the online application and upload all required materials in their final form by the stated deadline on the National Competition page located in the Student Resources section in the EdRising Membership Portal. This is NOT done automatically if you competed at a state or regional conference.
3. Register to attend the Educators Rising National Conference.

Eligibility

- Students must be paid Active-level student members of Educators Rising by February 1st of the year in which they are competing. Check or credit card payment must be received in the National Office by February 15th to be considered an Active-level member.
- Students may only compete in one competitive event.
- For contests: Teacher leaders may enter up to two entries (individual or dual) per school in each event per division.
 - Dual means two students participating.
 - For dual entries consisting of students of varying grade levels, the entry will be placed in the division for the grade level of the most senior member.
- For competitions: Teacher leaders may enter up to two entries per school in each individual event per division and one team for team events per division. Competitions/contests that are marked as individual or dual will be considered individual events for this purpose.
 - All team events must have at least two students (and no more than four) per school to qualify.
 - For teams consisting of students of varying grade levels, the team will be placed in the division for the grade level of the most senior member.
- If a competitor is from a state that holds state competitions/contests, they must first qualify in that given event at their state conference before competing in that event at the Educators Rising National Conference. Contact your state/regional coordinator to see if your state offers competitive events. Visit our state program page on the Educators Rising national website to contact your state/regional coordinator.
- For states that offer state-level competitive events, the top ten places in each competition for each division offered by the state will be eligible to compete at the Educators Rising National Conference.
- For contests, you must compete in a state-level event in order to be eligible to compete at the Educators Rising National Conference. Only entries scoring 97-100 will be eligible to advance to nationals. No other entrants from states that offer the competitive events at the state level will be eligible for those state-level-offered competitive events.
- For national team competitions, schools are permitted to replace up to fifty percent of the original team members who qualified at the state-level. Substitutions are not permitted in Individual or Dual competitions or contests. Replacements can be made up to 7 days prior to the conference. No replacements can be made after this time or onsite.
- For states that do not offer state-level competitive events, students may register to compete in those events at the Educators Rising National Conference. This applies to all Educators Rising national competitions. This does not apply to contests since you must qualify at state first before moving to nationals.
 - For example, if you want to compete in Public Speaking but place eleventh or lower in your state-level Public Speaking competition or don't compete in the state-level competitions at all — you cannot compete in Public Speaking at the National Conference this year. If you live in a state that didn't hold a Public Speaking state-level competition, you may register to compete in that event at the Educators Rising National

 - All competitions and contests require an online application submission, even if no additional items need to be submitted. Students who have won state-level competitive events must also submit their entries on the national website by the deadline to compete at the national conference. Your state does not do this for you.
 - Only one application can be submitted for team competitions which lists all team members in all places indicated on the application form.
 - Each competition guideline will identify the materials are required for submission before the competition. Failure to submit the required materials by the submission deadline will result in disqualification. All submitted materials must be in their final form.
- All video files submitted in advance must be uploaded to YouTube and be linked to the application form. Videos will not be accepted by mail. All videos and presentations must be brought to the conference on a USB drive and files must be accessible without internet access. If students plan to use their own devices for presentation, students must be able to connect their device via HDMI to an external projector without assistance.

- Laptops and projectors will be provided. Students should bring their own pointing device if needed. Except when explicitly specified, the Internet may not be used during a competition presentation at the Educators Rising National Conference.

Conference Registration, Attendance, and Participation in Events

- All competitors must attend the Educators Rising National Conference. Plan to arrive no later than 11 am on the first day of the conference and stay through the awards ceremony on the final day. Conference dates and locations will be posted on the Educators Rising website and Membership Portal.
- Competitors must report to their assigned areas on time. Failure to report at their scheduled time can result in disqualification. Competition schedules will be posted in the Educators Rising Membership Portal one month before the conference. Be sure to check these schedules before planning your travel.
- Competitors are expected to dress in business-casual attire. (See the section Competition Dress Code for details on what is acceptable.) Points may be deducted from the entrant's score for failing to follow the dress code.
- Spectators are only permitted in the competitions marked "Open to Spectators." This includes parents, chaperones, teacher leaders, and other attendees. Spectators may not coach or offer any verbal or nonverbal assistance to a contestant during that contestant's assigned time slot with the judges. A breach of this guideline may result in the disqualification of the contestant.
- Teacher Leaders, Chaperones, and Parents are prohibited from approaching judges to discuss scoring or feedback. All questions or concerns should be brought to the attention of a national office staff member.

Judging and Scoring

- Scoring is based on the posted individual competition rubric.
- Final scores will be based on a scaled score. Scaled scores are calculated using several methods, including judges tie breakers and room normalizations.
- Judges will break ties in all competitive events.
- To accommodate a large number of competitors, we use multiple rooms, each with its own set of judges. We employ a well-established mathematical method to normalize scores to ensure fairness across these rooms. This method helps balance judge subjectivity and ensures all competitors have a fair shot, regardless of their assigned room.
- In each competitive event, each competitor gets an average score from the judges which is averaged with the partner judge. If there is a deviation of more than one standard deviation between rooms, the two rooms are normed against one another to that deviation. The final scores used for ranking are the normalized scores (also known as scaled scores).

- Perfect scores will be excluded from the normalization process when scoring is normalized. If more than one student in the same division in the same competition receives a perfect score, a second set of judges will review the recorded presentations for those students to make a final decision.

Awards

- For Competitions: Medals and certificates will be presented to the top three entries in each division for individual competitions. Trophies and certificates will be presented to the top three entries in each division for team competitions. All places will receive electronic certificates after the conference.
- For Contests: Ribbons will be awarded to students in each category in each division with scores as follows:
 - Blue-Scores 97-100
 - Red-Scores 93-96
 - White-Scores 90-92

Inquiry Process

- The student scores will be released directly to the participating student(s) after the conference. The scores will provide individual judges' scores, the average score for the two judges, and the normalized score (if necessary).
- Students will have 3 business days to file an inquiry regarding the validity of their score. They must complete the online inquiry request form and submit all required documentation for consideration. No appeal will be accepted after the 3-day period.
- Staff will review the scoring and respond to the inquiry within 30 days. All decisions are final.

- Entrants grant Educators Rising the right to post photos of students for promotional purposes on the Educators Rising website, Membership Portal, and social media sites.
- Student Privacy and Protection Requirements: Submitters are responsible for ensuring that all competition materials comply with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) and all applicable local district policies regarding student privacy and data protection. Any submission containing identifiable student information—including, but not limited to, names, faces in the video, voice recordings, voices, or student work samples—must have appropriate documented consent from parents/guardians and/or students, as required by applicable laws and district policies. DEADLINES AND CHECKLIST

Ready to compete at Nationals?

Here is a checklist to help you get prepared, registered, and on the official schedule for nationals!

SUBMISSIONS OPEN: FEBRUARY 1, 2027, 8:00 A.M. EASTERN TIME

DEADLINE TO SUBMIT COMPETITION APPLICATIONS: APRIL 1, 2027, 5:00 P.M. EASTERN TIME

DEADLINE FOR COMPETITORS TO REGISTER FOR CONFERENCE: APRIL 1, 2027, 5:00 P.M. EASTERN TIME

- ☐ Review the full national competition guidelines and rubric. Check the Resources Section in the EdRising Membership Portal. Some processes may be different from your state/regional conference.
- ☐ Update your contact information in the EdRising Membership Portal for the summer. It is recommended that students use a personal mail address where they can receive Educators Rising email communication. Confirmations and reminder emails will be sent to the email listed on the competition application. Often school emails do not allow for Educators Rising emails to be received.
- ☐ Step one: Go to the National Competition page in the EdRising Membership Portal. Step two: Click on the title of the competition for which you are signing up to compete. Step three: Read the guidelines and rubrics. Step four: Click Apply, which will take you to the national competition online application platform. All competitors must submit the online competition application even if no additional documents need to be submitted. Only one application is to be submitted for Dual or Team competitions. This only registers you for the competitions, you will still need to register for the conference separately.
- ☐ Complete the online application, upload any required documents/video links, and submit by the stated deadline for the Educators Rising National Conference. Depending on your competition, some of these items are judged before the conference so make sure they are in their final form. Recommendation: Have someone proofread your documents before submitting them. Only competitors who register by the deadline will be scheduled to compete.

For competitions that have multiple students participating only one application should be submitted and all students need to be listed as team members in all places indicated on the application form.
- ☐ Print and save your confirmation email and application number. You will need the application number when you register for the conference.
- ☐ Register as a competitor for the Educators Rising National Conference. All national conference information, including how to register, can be found on the Educators Rising National website.
- ☐ Find out when you are scheduled to compete onsite. Competition schedules will be posted in the EdRising Membership Portal one month prior to the conference. Go to the Resources section to find the posted schedules. Be sure to check these schedules prior to planning your travel. Competitors should plan to be available for competitions from 1 PM (conference time zone) on opening day through the awards celebration on the afternoon of the last day.
- ☐ Practice, practice, practice! The best way to prepare for your on-site competition is to practice in front of your peers. Recommendation: Reread the National Competition Guidelines and Rubric for your competition.
- ☐ Head to Nationals! National placers will be announced at the National Conference Awards Celebration on the final day of the conference. Don't miss your chance to be recognized! Be sure that when you plan your transportation for the conference you can attend this final celebration.

Breakout Session Helpful Information

Conference Objectives

TAFE's goal is to offer a variety of exciting and interactive workshops for students and teacher leaders. In addition to professional development in areas related to teaching (such as brain-based instruction, tips for classroom management, etc.), TAFE would like to encourage students to think about how to use technology to teach all learners.

Conference Audience

Jr. High school students through college seniors and their TAFE chapter Teacher Leaders

Workshop Formats

Sessions will be 40 minutes long. Please consider a variety of formats for your presentation before you decide what would work best. Interactive sessions engage the audience. Students' workshop evaluations have clearly indicated that they are most engaged in sessions that involve them in hands-on activities or discussions. Lecturing with a PowerPoint slideshow won't hold their attention, so we will select proposals that will engage the audience. Please consider these formats for your workshop:

- Debate: Two or three debaters hold clearly differing points of view. A chairperson with a prepared set of questions moderates the session. This could work well with students as debaters and a Teacher Leader as moderator. Topics could include different aspects of No Child Left Behind, pros and cons of high stakes testing, etc.

- Demonstration: This is a demonstration of a useful teaching tool or concept. The audience will come away with an understanding of how it is used but will not have any hands-on opportunities to try the tool or apply the concept.
- Panel: This format focuses on an issue facing the field of education. Groups of two or three students or Teacher Leaders will offer short presentations on the panel's topic, allowing sufficient time for a question-and-answer session with the audience.
- Collaborative learning: This includes a presentation and discussion, with most of the session devoted to discussion and feedback. Presenters bring targeted questions on their topic to pose to the participants. This is ideal for networking and in-depth discussion on one topic.
- Skill building workshop: The presenter(s) teaches the participants a specific skill needed by teachers (or TAFE Teacher Leaders) and includes at least one exercise to let the participants practice the skill, perhaps in small groups.
- Make and Take: This is a hands-on how-to session. The audience will have opportunities to make and/or apply useful teaching tools.

These creative lectures present bold ideas often through personal lenses and have elevated a public speaking format that has been replicated across the world. Watch some TED Talks on education here: www.ted.com/topics/education.

The Creative Lecture Competition will offer ambitious, fearless, bold-thinking students a platform for sharing their ideas in a format that has been embraced by intellectual society. Students participating in this competition will prepare and deliver a speech of four to ten minutes when spoken aloud, on the assigned topic. Competitors will present their speeches before on-site judges and spectators. Because spectators may enter or exit the presentation space at any time, competitors should be prepared to maintain focus and continue their presentation despite potential distractions.

Assigned Topic

The topic for the 2027 Creative Lecture Competition is: The Hidden Report Card: What School Budgets Say About America's Values

PROMPT:

"Don't tell me what you value. Show me your budget, and I'll tell you what you value."

— Traditional Civic Adage

Every school district in America has a mission statement celebrating its commitment to student success, creativity, and well-being. Yet, systemic funding deficits across the nation frequently force public schools into severe budgetary triage. When districts face these financial shortfalls, operational cuts often tell a conflicting story: arts programs are eliminated, elective courses disappear, and mental health resources are stripped away, all while alternative voucher systems and homeschool options shift enrollment and public dollars away from traditional infrastructure.

As a future educator and current leader in your community, you have a vital role to play in analyzing this financial landscape. If a budget is the true reflection of a society's educational values, what story does the current public school funding model tell? How can the public education system restructure its financial priorities to protect the student experience, and how must it redefine its value to remain viable in an era of unprecedented educational competition? Advocate for your solution—and challenge us to change the system.

Next Education Workforce

Competition Purpose

A school district has decided to create a new high school, and your team has been selected to help design it.

In the Designing the Future of High School Competition, teams of Educators Rising students step into the role of school designers working alongside a district to develop the model for a new high school.

Your challenge is to design a high school that today's students would choose, tomorrow's world would need, and educators would want to work in.

Teams will work at two levels:

- The High School Model: What is the long-term vision for this school?
- The Ninth-Grade Launch: What will the first students and educators actually experience when the school opens?

Your district will initially open the school with its first class of ninth graders. Your team therefore does not need to design every detail of a complete grades 9–12 school. Instead, you should establish a compelling vision for what the high school will ultimately become and demonstrate how that vision begins with the school's founding ninth-grade class.

Teams should be informed by the XQ Design Principles, ASU's Next Education Workforce initiative, research and stakeholder perspectives, and their own experiences as students.

The goal is not simply to add innovative programs or technology to a traditional high school. Teams should reconsider how students learn, how relationships are built, how students exercise agency, how time and learning are organized, how learning connects to the community, and how educators work together to make those experiences possible.

Resources:

To help students prepare, we have put together a Google Site of valuable resources which includes:

- A graphic overview of the competition
- A Detailed Workbook for creating required components
- The XQ Design Principles
- The ASU Next Education Workforce initiative

Competition Guidelines

COMPONENT 1: School Model Proposal

- A. The proposal must be at least 4 pages and no more than exceed 6 pages. Teams may submit one additional reference page for research, data, images, frameworks, or other external materials used in developing the model. The reference page does not count toward the 4–6 page limit. The portfolio will be prescored prior to conference.
- B. Proposal must address the following:
 - Vision & Purpose
 - Founding Ninth-Grade Experience
 - School Structures
 - Founding Ninth-Grade Educators Team
 - Design and Development Reflection
- C. The proposal should use a combination of concise writing and purposeful visuals, such as diagrams, schedules, tables, maps, or other representations of the school model.

COMPONENT 2: School Model Pitch and Design Defense

- A. At the Educators Rising National Conference, no less than two and no more than four representatives from each participating school program will present their proposed school model to a panel of judges and an audience of spectators. During the presentation, team members will have up to 8 minutes to present. The entire presentation to judges will last no more than 8 minutes. The presentation will be stopped at 8 minutes.

- B. The presentation should tell the story of the school rather than simply read from the workbook.
- C. Teams should focus on:
 - The Vision: Why should this high school exist?
 - The Experience: What will the founding ninth graders actually experience?
 - The Model: What is different about how the school works?
 - The People: Who are the educators who make that experience possible?

Teams should demonstrate how these elements connect.

- D. Following the presentation, the judges will have up to five minutes to ask questions to team members. Judges may ask teams to explain a design choice, defend an assumption, address a tradeoff, respond to a realistic implementation challenge, or explain how the educator team makes a particular student experience possible.

Teams should be prepared to explain why they made their choices, not simply describe what they designed.

PRE-SCORED COMPONENTS

School Model Proposal

Points Available	20-16 Accomplished	15-11 Commendable	10-6 Developing	5-1 Needs Improvement
Vision & Purpose	Presents a clear and compelling reason for the school to exist and a distinctive long-term vision. The central idea meaningfully influences the rest of the model.	Presents a clear purpose and overall vision with several distinctive features.	Purpose and vision are present but broad, conventional, or inconsistently connected to the model.	Purpose is unclear or the proposed school largely reproduces a conventional high school.
Founding Ninth-Grade Experience	Creates a vivid and coherent student experience characterized by meaningful learning, strong relationships, youth agency, and authentic opportunities to learn. The sample day and signature experiences clearly advance the school's vision.	Presents a thoughtful ninth-grade experience with generally strong connections to the larger vision.	Includes promising experiences, but important elements remain vague, conventional, or disconnected.	Provides limited evidence of what students would actually experience.
School Structures	Student grouping, use of time, and learning environments are intentionally designed around the proposed student experience. Community connections meaningfully extend learning.	Major structural choices generally support the student experience.	Some structures support the model, but others remain conventional or insufficiently explained.	Structures are unclear or do not demonstrate how the proposed experience could operate.
Founding Ninth-Grade Educator Team	Presents a clear team-based workforce in which educators with differentiated expertise share responsibility for students. Roles, collaboration, and the distinctive educator role are intentionally designed around the student experience.	Presents meaningful educator collaboration and shared responsibility with generally clear roles.	Includes some team-based elements, but work remains substantially organized around individual educators or connections to the student experience are weak.	Staffing remains essentially conventional or does not explain how educators work together.

Points Available	20-16 Accomplished	15-11 Commendable	10-6 Developing	5-1 Needs Improvement
Evidence, Design Development & Coherence	Stakeholder perspectives meaningfully influence the model, and the team identifies a substantive revision resulting from what it learned. Vision, student experience, structures, and educator workforce operate as one coherent model.	Uses stakeholder input and demonstrates generally strong coherence across components.	Evidence of stakeholder influence or design revision is limited, or connections among components are inconsistent.	Provides little evidence of outside perspectives or revision, and major components appear disconnected.

School Model Pitch and Design Defense Presentation and Q&A

Points Available	15-13 Accomplished	12-9 Commendable	8-5 Developing	4-1 Needs Improvement
School Model Pitch	Presents a compelling and well-organized story connecting the vision, ninth-grade experience, school structures, and educator team. Team members demonstrate shared ownership of the model.	Clearly communicates the major components and relationships within the model.	Communicates the basic model but may be uneven, overly descriptive, or unclear in places.	Does not clearly communicate how the proposed school works.
Vocal Delivery	Clarity of voice, pacing, and modulation of tone are professional-caliber and expertly crafted to deliver to the listener maximum impact and understanding.	Clarity of voice, pacing, and modulation of tone are strong. The listener is able to understand what the competitors are conveying.	Clarity of voice, pacing, and modulation of tone are basic and straightforward. The listener is able to understand, but the impact would be increased with a more dynamic or consistent vocal delivery.	Clarity of voice, pacing, and modulation of tone are inconsistent during the presentation. At times, the vocal delivery from multiple team members distracts from the content of the presentation and diminishes its potential impact.

Points Available	15-13 Accomplished	12-9 Commendable	8-5 Developing	4-1 Needs Improvement
Presence	The competitors' sustained eye contact, effective posture, and professional demeanor expertly complement the substance of the presentation to deliver maximum possible impact to the listener. All team members, whether speaking or not, reinforce the intended impact of the presentation at all times.	The competitors' mostly sustained eye contact, positive posture, and pleasant demeanor complement the content of the presentation quite well. One or more of the presenters may appear to slip in and out of professional character at moments during the session.	The competitors' inconsistent eye contact, posture, and demeanor reflect a straightforward recital of the material. The speakers could do more to fully capitalize on the added impact possible with a focused, sustained presence.	The competitors display effort but eye contact, posture, and demeanor from multiple team members could benefit from more practice and coaching so that the speakers' presence consistently complement the content.
Q&A Discussion	The competitors demonstrate deep ownership, thoughtful reasoning, and an ability to explain tradeoffs and connections between design choices.	The competitors demonstrate solid understanding and can explain most major design choices.	The competitors demonstrate general familiarity but reasoning is inconsistent or superficial.	The competitors cannot adequately explain major design choices or relationships within the model.
Overall Impact	The presentation's demonstration of clear, powerful, and undeniable impact and innovation translates fully. The visuals and the presentation content and delivery effectively complement each other to craft a highly impactful, professional-caliber experience.	The visuals, content, and delivery work together to offer a commendable presentation. With minor revisions and delivery tweaks, the project could be considered professional caliber.	The presentation demonstrates effort. At multiple moments, the visuals, content, and delivery may not effectively complement one another, which may limit the impact of the presentation.	The presentation demonstrates inconsistent, off-topic, unprofessional, or superficial aspects of the visuals, content, or delivery. The audience is frequently distracted from the intended impact by aspects of the visuals, content, or delivery.

ESSAY QUESTIONS: One of the following essay questions will appear on the State ELF exam

- A. Teen mental health is a growing concern, with studies showing that approximately 1 in 5 teenagers in the U.S. experiences a mental health condition each year, such as anxiety or depression. According to the CDC, feelings of persistent sadness or hopelessness among teens have increased by over 40% in the past decade, with nearly 1 in 3 teens reporting these feelings. Despite the rising numbers, many teens do not receive the help they need, often due to stigma or lack of access to mental health resources. What is the role of schools in addressing students' mental health needs? Discuss how mental health awareness and support programs in schools can contribute to the overall well-being and academic performance of students.
- B. Social media has increasingly become a part of students' educational experiences, with both positive and negative effects. According to a 2021 survey by the Pew Research Center, 84% of teens in the U.S. reported using social media, and 31% said they use these platforms to discuss school-related topics. Research indicates that when used effectively, social media can enhance learning by facilitating collaboration, providing access to educational resources, and fostering global connections. However, studies also show concerns about its negative impact on academic performance, with some reports linking excessive social media use to lower grades and decreased focus. A 2022 study found that 45% of students admitted to being distracted by social media during study time. In what ways does social media affect students' academic performance and social interactions? Analyze both the positive and negative influences of social media in the context of education.
- C. Standardized testing remains a central method of assessing student performance in many education systems, though its effectiveness has been widely debated. In the United States, the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) reports that nearly 80% of U.S. public school students take state-mandated standardized tests each year, with most states requiring assessments in reading and math from grades 3 through 8. Do standardized tests effectively measure a student's knowledge and abilities? Argue for or against the use of standardized testing in schools and suggest alternative methods of assessment. Studies reveal that high school students in the United States spend an average of 6-7 hours per week on homework, with some exceeding 10 hours depending on their academic workload. Is homework an effective tool for reinforcing learning, or does it place unnecessary stress on students?
- D. Statistics show that approximately 57% of high school students in the United States participate in at least one extracurricular activity, ranging from sports and arts to academic clubs and volunteer work. How do extracurricular activities contribute to a student's overall education and personal development?
- E. Artificial Intelligence (AI) is beginning to play a larger role in education, from personalized learning platforms and automated grading to AI tutoring and student monitoring systems. While these technologies offer new possibilities, they also raise important questions about equity, privacy, teacher roles, and the nature of learning. Consider how AI might change the roles of teachers and students, how it affects learning outcomes, and what ethical or practical concerns it raises. Do you believe the integration of AI into schools will improve or harm education in the long run?
- F. The future of education is rapidly evolving due to technological advances, changing student needs, and societal expectations. Based on your understanding of the foundations of education, evaluate which core educational principles should remain constant and which should adapt to prepare students for success in the 21st century.

To enter this competition, Educators Rising members must successfully complete a self-initiated service-learning project that meets several requirements:

- The project cannot be part of the required curriculum for a course.
- The project requires a minimum of 40 hours of work.

- Submit the complete project portfolio by the competition registration deadline stated in the General Competition Information sheet.

In addition to submitting the project portfolio, competitors must deliver a presentation to a panel of judges at the Educators Rising National Conference.

A minimum of 40 hours is required. The student must then complete a well-organized portfolio that includes an essay describing the project, as well as supporting artifacts. There are two components to the project portfolio: the essay and the artifacts. If the artifacts are not included, the application will be disqualified.

ESSAY GUIDELINES

The essay must be typed in 12-point font, double-spaced, and written in English. The essay cannot exceed 12 pages. The student should address the following sections in his or her essay. These sections must be clearly labeled.

A. Title page

Include your name, your teacher leader's name, your school's name and address, and the title of your project.

B. Executive Summary

Give an overview of your project that is two pages or less. Include highlights from each section of the essay (background, project description, and reflection). For example, an executive summary might include a brief summary of the reasoning behind your project, what the project entailed, and the primary lessons that you learned from this experience.

C. Background

Why did you choose this project? Why is this project necessary and appropriate for this time and place? What is the intended impact of the project and how will you know if you achieved it?

D. Project description

Describe the process of completing your project. Questions to consider include:

- How did you determine a plan for your project? What was your method for gathering information and making strategic decisions?
- Did you need specific materials or volunteers? If so, how did you obtain them? How did you keep everything, and everyone organized?

- How much time did you spend on this project? How did you spend most of your time? Was that different than what you anticipated? If so, how? How did you keep a record of progress?
- Did you make any significant changes to your project during the process? If so, did that affect the overall outcome? How?
- How did you know when the project was completed? Was there any presentation or debut of the final product?
- Did you undertake the project in a way that maximized its potential effectiveness?
- What is your strategy for keeping the project going once the competition is over?

E. Reflection

Reflect on the overall experience. Think about what you learned about yourself and those who benefited from the project. Consider how this experience will influence you in your future career in education. Questions to consider include:

- What did you learn about yourself as a project leader? What skills did you acquire that you can use in your career as an educator? How did this project affect you personally?
- What impact did this project have on your community? How did you measure or determine this impact? Given the project's outcome, did you spend your time well?
- What did you learn about working with others or managing people?
- What would you do differently, if anything?
- What do those who benefited from this project think of the work that you led? How has your project positively impacted education or supported the work of Educators Rising?

In addition to your essay, you must include five to eight artifacts in your project portfolio. EDUCATORS RISING STANDARDS:

Contest Purpose

In this competition, the Educators Rising school program must debate an ethical education-related dilemma. This competition requires students to think deeply about an ethical issue, employ critical-thinking skills, and use persuasive communication techniques to collaboratively debate an ethical dilemma.

To participate, each member of the school program must first thoroughly consider the ethical issue and begin to form an individual position on the topic. Then the students must debate the topic together, listening carefully to each other's opinions. Through the discussion, the students must come to a consensus on the topic. The students then must work together to develop a written analysis of the dilemma and a 10-minute presentation to present the group's opinion, recommendations, and how it was reached to a panel of judges at the National Conference.

- B. One judge will serve as a timekeeper during the presentations. Team members will receive a visual, non-verbal indication that there is one minute remaining when they reach the nine-minute mark of their presentations. Student presentations will be stopped at 10 minutes.

ETHICAL DILEMMA SCENARIO FOR 2027

Rebecca, a 10th-grade student and member of the track team, arrived in Ms. Wilkes' math class with shaking hands, looking pale and visibly upset. Ms. Wilkes, who also served as the track coach, noticed Rebecca's appearance and asked if everything was okay. Rebecca did not respond but appeared on the verge of tears as she quietly took her assigned seat. Knowing that Rebecca's parents had recently divorced, Ms. Wilkes remained concerned and called her that evening using the contact information she kept for all her track athletes.

Rebecca explained that she was tired of being picked on by other students. Earlier that day, in her Social Studies class, Mr. Jefferson had led a discussion centered on an upcoming election while sharing his own strong political views. Most students were already aware of his political opinions because he frequently posted related articles online. During the discussion, Mr. Jefferson asked students to share their own political views and even asked whom their parents might support in the election. He specifically called on several students who followed him on social media. When Rebecca expressed viewpoints that differed from Mr. Jefferson's, many classmates booed her and called her opinions stupid.

During the group activity that followed, Mr. Jefferson instructed students to work in small groups while he entered grades on his computer. Rebecca's group began verbally attacking her, criticizing her athletic ability and making jokes about her appearance. The teasing escalated into loud laughter. Although Mr. Jefferson briefly looked up from his work, he failed to intervene. This incident was only the latest example of Rebecca being targeted and bullied by her peers.

During her phone conversation with Ms. Wilkes, Rebecca pleaded with her not to tell Mr. Jefferson because she feared it would only make the situation worse. Although Ms. Wilkes agreed to keep the conversation confidential, she wanted to help Rebecca, whom she believed was struggling with her parents' recent divorce. Over the course of several phone calls and text messages, Rebecca disclosed that she had been experiencing depression for some time and did not know how to cope. She begged Ms. Wilkes not to tell anyone, especially because her mother was already overwhelmed. Wanting to support her student, Ms. Wilkes began meeting with Rebecca after school each week. After using AI to research counseling strategies related to Rebecca's situation, she offered advice about responding to bullying and shared AI-sourced resources addressing depression.

IMPROMPTU LESSON COMPETITION

Entries Per Chapter	2 per division
Type of Event	Individual
State Competition	Yes
National Competition	No
Prescored Event	No

OBJECTIVE: To challenge future educators to plan, prepare, and deliver effective lessons even when unexpected events create time restraints prohibiting advance planning. To promote teaching skills among T.A.F.E. students.

OVERVIEW: Highly skilled educators never stop building their mental toolbox of strategies to support learning. Sometimes in teaching life, plans change suddenly, and teachers must improvise. For highly skilled teachers though, this doesn't mean making things up out of thin air; it means drawing upon the strategies and experiences in that mental toolbox to quickly create a quality learning opportunity.

This competition is an individual event in which a rising educator assembles a high-quality learning experience despite limited time to plan and finite resources to use. The contestant will be given a box of classroom materials as well as a written scenario detailing a specific class, including grade level, subject, and other relevant context. The student will then have 20 minutes to plan and prepare a lesson in which he/she will effectively engage the class. Immediately following the planning, the contestant will enter the main competition room and teach a 15-minute lesson to the judges, with judges acting as cooperative students in the class.

IMPROMPTU LESSON COMPETITION GUIDELINES:

- Scenario and materials will be provided to the contestant in the planning room at the start of the 20-minute planning window.
- The planning room will contain a table, chairs, and a box of supplies. All contestants will have access to identical resources in the planning room and competition room.
- At the end of the 20-minute planning window, the contestant will report immediately to the judges in the main competition room.
- The contestant will teach his/her 15-minute lesson to a panel of judges, who will participate acting as cooperative students in the class.
- After the lesson, judges will have five minutes to ask questions. The contestants should respond comprehensively to all questions, as these answers will be scored when judges complete their scoring rubrics.

CONTEST JUDGES' INFORMATION

- Both Area and State:
 - The judging panel will consist of 1-3 adults.
 - The judges' decisions are final.
 - Scoring is based on the Impromptu Lesson Competition rubric.

COMPETITION TYPE: Team - Closed to spectators

ELIGIBILITY LEVELS: High School Junior Varsity, High School Varsity

EDUCATORS RISING STANDARDS:

- Standard I: Understanding the Profession
- Standard II: Learning About Students
- Standard VII: Engaging in Reflective Practice

Contest Purpose

The purpose of the Inside Our Schools Presentation Competition is to allow Educators Rising students to showcase one innovative strategy that their school or school district employs to enhance teaching and learning. Innovative strategies do not necessarily mean new technology. An innovative strategy is a deviation from the standard practice that results in greater engagement and learning outcomes for students. The strategy must be something that the school or school district has begun to implement no earlier than 2026. The creative presentation, which will involve a live presentation and a video, should appeal to anyone looking for smart ways to take teaching and learning to a higher level.

Preparation Tips

- Collaborate as a team to brainstorm innovative strategies in use in your school or district.
- Do some real legwork in learning about your selected innovative strategy by talking to local leaders and conducting Internet research.
- Observe the innovative strategy in action in at least three settings.
- Use creativity and original ideas when creating your video and crafting your live presentation.
- Work collaboratively as a team, with each team member filling a specific role (ex. director, lead researcher, etc.). Highlight your experiences during observations, as well as personal opinions on best practices used by teachers, in your video.
- Have a video credits page citing any source media or permissions acquired for the use of any copyrighted material. (Educators Rising recommends avoiding copyrighted material.)
- Have a title screen including the title of your project, competition name, school name, city, and state.
- Obtain the necessary permission from all students and teachers who appear in the video.
- Preview your final video to ensure that the sound quality is good, and that video playback is smooth.

Research

The following are research resources that may be helpful concerning your topic:

- Your school or district website, to give any background or supporting details on your school/district
- Online articles regarding research-proven best practices to support the best practices you choose
- Interviews with local education leaders (teachers, principals, superintendents, district academic officers, etc.)

EDUCATORS RISING

CONCURSO DE PRESENTACIÓN INSIDE OUR SCHOOLS

TIPO DE CONCURSO: Equipo: cerrado a espectadores

NIVELES DE ELEGIBILIDAD: escuela secundaria junior, escuela secundaria senior

ESTÁNDARES DE EDUCATORS RISING:

- Estándar I: comprender la profesión
- Estándar II: aprender acerca de los estudiantes
- Estándar VII: participar en prácticas reflexivas

Finalidad del concurso

El propósito del concurso de presentación Inside Our Schools es permitir que los estudiantes de Educators Rising muestren una estrategia innovadora que su escuela o distrito escolar emplee para mejorar la enseñanza y el aprendizaje. Las estrategias innovadoras no significan necesariamente nuevas tecnologías. Una estrategia innovadora es una desviación de la práctica estándar que da como resultado un mayor compromiso y resultados de aprendizaje para los estudiantes. La estrategia debe ser algo que la escuela o el distrito escolar hayan comenzado a implementar no antes de 2024. La presentación creativa, que implicará una presentación en directo y un video, debería atraer a cualquier persona que busque formas inteligentes de llevar la enseñanza y el aprendizaje a un nivel superior.

Consejos de preparación

- Colabore en equipo para intercambiar ideas sobre estrategias innovadoras en uso en su escuela o distrito.
- Haga un poco de trabajo preliminar para aprender sobre su estrategia innovadora seleccionada al hablar con los líderes locales y realizar una investigación en internet.
- Observe la estrategia innovadora en acción en al menos tres entornos.
- Use la creatividad y las ideas originales al crear su video y crear su presentación en vivo.
- Trabaje en colaboración como equipo, con cada miembro del equipo en un puesto específico (p. ej., director, investigador principal, etc.). Resalte en su video sus experiencias durante las observaciones, así como sus opiniones personales sobre las mejores prácticas utilizadas por los profesores.
- Tenga una página de créditos de video que cite cualquier medio fuente o permisos adquiridos para el uso de cualquier material protegido por derechos de autor. (Educators Rising recomienda evitar el material protegido por derechos de autor).

- Tenga una pantalla de título que incluya el título de su proyecto, el nombre del concurso, el nombre de la escuela, la ciudad y el estado.
- Obtenga el permiso necesario de todos los estudiantes y profesores que aparecen en el video.
- Previsualice su video final para asegurarse de que la calidad del sonido es buena y que la reproducción del video es fluida.

Investigación

Los siguientes son recursos de investigación que pueden ser útiles en relación con su tema:

- El sitio web de su escuela o distrito, para proporcionar cualquier contexto o detalles de apoyo sobre su escuela/distrito
- Artículos en línea relacionados con la investigación: mejores prácticas probadas para respaldar las mejores prácticas que elija
- Entrevistas con líderes educativos locales (profesores, directores, superintendentes, funcionarios académicos de distrito, etc.)

Design of the Project

Points Available	10-7 Accomplished	6-4 Commendable	3-1 Developing
Color	Color choices are purposefully utilized to enhance learning	Color choices represent thoughtfulness	Little to no consideration of color choice
Texture	Skillfully incorporates texture	Unskilled incorporation of texture	Little to no consideration of use of texture
Lettering	Neat and easily read	Lack of neatness distracts from learning task.	Difficult to read or illegible
Attention to Detail	A professional-caliber display, with almost no mechanical errors. Materials are original, creative, and neatly placed. There is organization in the arrangement of those materials on the display.	A nearly professional-caliber display, with one or two mechanical errors. Materials are creative and neatly placed but lack organization in arrangement.	A display that would benefit from more attention to detail. More than two mechanical errors. Materials may be lacking organization in their assembly. The board is too crowded or busy to focus on the task.

Presentation

Points Available	10-7 Accomplished	6-4 Commendable	3-1 Developing
Depth	The presentation reflects a deep and comprehensive understanding of the functionality of the bulletin board. The contestant expertly leverages the display to facilitate in-depth and thoughtful student interaction.	The presentation is on-topic and offers some good points, though it would benefit from a greater exploration and detail into the functionality of the bulletin board. Student interaction is possible through the display design but lacks depth.	The presentation is surface level only. Basic information is provided, but not explored. Student interaction is minimal or impossible due to the display's design.
Structure	The presentation and display reflect a truly impressive, nuanced command of how to clearly communicate key information about the functionality of the bulletin board. The presentation is successfully and strategically sequenced.	The presentation and display reflect a largely successful effort to convey the functionality of the bulletin board.	The presentation and display follow a traditional structure without evidence of further ambition or execution. It is direct and on-topic.

Points Available	10-7 Accomplished	6-4 Commendable	3-1 Developing
Presence	The contestant's sustained eye contact, effective posture, and professional demeanor expertly complement the substance of the presentation to deliver maximum possible impact to the listener. The display of materials enhances the presentation.	The contestant's mostly sustained eye contact, positive posture, and pleasant demeanor complement the content of the presentation quite well. The display of materials complements the presentation.	The contestant's inconsistent eye contact, posture, and demeanor reflect a straightforward recital of the material. The speaker could do more to fully capitalize on the added impact possible with a focused, sustained presence. The display of materials is relevant to the presentation.
Q&A	The contestant's responses demonstrated consistent thoughtfulness and professional-caliber insight, rooted in reflexivity about the materials. The contestant displays impressive, professional-level depth of knowledge and understanding.	The contestant's responses demonstrated thoughtfulness and reflected successful attempts to address most of the material posed to him/her. The contestant displays some substantive knowledge and understanding of the selected functionality of the bulletin board.	The contestant's responses reflected a broad spectrum of levels of quality from answer to answer.

COMPETITION TYPE: Individual - Closed to spectators

ELIGIBILITY LEVELS: High School Junior Varsity, High School Varsity

EDUCATORS RISING STANDARDS:

- Standard I: Understanding the Profession
- Standard IV: Engaging in Responsive Planning
- Standard VII: Engaging in Reflective Practice

Contest Purpose

The Job Interview Competition is an opportunity for Educators Rising members to develop and practice their interview, cover letter, and résumé writing skills. In this competition, entrants apply for a position as a paraprofessional (a link to the position description can be found below). This includes submitting a cover letter explaining why the entrant is a good candidate for the position, and a résumé that detailing relevant work, volunteer work, and educational experiences.

Judges will review the cover letters and résumés, and candidates will be interviewed for a paraprofessional position just like any job application/interview process. Interviews will take place on-site at the Educators Rising National Conference. The judges will act as the school district's hiring committee and will ask questions of the job candidates one at a time. The candidate who submits the strongest cover letter and résumé and performs the best in the interview will be honored as the Educators Rising National Conference winner. Since high school graduates are eligible to be employed as paraprofessionals in many districts, this competition offers an immediate opportunity for a real-world application of the work entailed in participation.

Competition Guidelines

LEARNING SPACE CHALLENGE CONTEST-ELEMENTARY

COMPETITION TYPE: Individual/Dual — Closed to spectators

ELIGIBILITY LEVELS: High School Junior Varsity, High School Varsity

EDUCATORS RISING STANDARDS:

- Standard I: Understanding the Profession
- Standard III: Building Content Knowledge
- Standard V: Implementing Instruction

Contest Purpose

Think about the spaces you encounter every day. The best spaces aren't designed simply to look good. They are designed around what people will do there. An Apple Store invites people to explore, touch, test, learn, ask questions, and interact. LEGO House creates different environments for building, experimenting, solving problems, creating, collaborating, and playing. Museums, libraries, workplaces, and community spaces make similar choices about how people move, gather, focus, discover, and participate.

Learning spaces should be designed just as intentionally.

Great learning environments do more than look inviting. They help students think, collaborate, create, build independence, feel a sense of belonging, and engage deeply in learning.

In this contest, participants will design an elementary learning environment that supports strong teaching and meaningful learning throughout the school day. Students should think beyond traditional classroom layouts and decorations to consider how the space itself can promote engagement, collaboration, movement, choice, accessibility, reflection, and student ownership.

Participants will create a five-slide presentation showing their learning environment and the design decisions behind it. They will also submit a Summary Sheet and present their design to judges, explaining how the space supports learners, educators, and the kinds of learning experiences they want to make possible.

Contest Guidelines

LEARNING SPACE DESIGN

A. Participants will design an elementary learning environment that demonstrates how thoughtful use of space can advance learning. The design should support a range of learning experiences and ways students may learn throughout the school day.

B. Participants should consider how the environment:

- Encourages curiosity, exploration, and active engagement
- Supports collaboration, discussion, and learning with others
- Creates opportunities for independent learning, focus, and reflection
- Gives students appropriate choice, agency, and ownership of their learning
- Supports movement and allows the environment to adapt for different purposes
- Creates a welcoming, inclusive, and accessible environment where all learners can participate
- Makes student thinking and learning visible
- Gives students access to the tools, materials, resources, and technology they need
- Enables educators to observe, facilitate, confer, provide feedback, and respond to learners

- C. Participants are encouraged to think beyond traditional classroom layouts. Furniture, walls, displays, technology, lighting, materials, storage, learning zones, and other elements may all be considered as part of the learning environment. Every major design choice should have a clear purpose connected to how students learn.
- D. There is no single “right” design. Creativity and original thinking are encouraged, but design decisions should be grounded in the needs of learners and effective learning practices.
- E. Designs may be created by hand, digitally, or using presentation or design software. Computer-created content must follow Educators Rising copyright rules.
- F. The design must reflect the participant’s original thinking and creativity.

SLIDE DECK REQUIREMENTS

Participants will create a five-slide presentation that communicates their vision for the learning environment and the thinking behind their design.

Slide 1: Your Vision for Learning

Introduce your learning environment and the big ideas behind it. What do you want students to experience, feel, and be able to do in this space?

Slide 2: The Learning Environment

Show the overall design and layout of your space. Help judges understand how students and educators might move through, use, and experience the environment.

Slide 3: Learning in Action

Show how the environment supports different ways of learning, such as collaborating, creating, discussing, practicing, exploring, focusing independently, or receiving support. Participants do not need to demonstrate all of these.

Slide 4: Design Choices That Matter

Highlight several important design decisions and explain why you made them. These could involve furniture, materials, technology, displays, lighting, accessibility, movement, storage, learning zones, or something entirely different.

Slide 5: Why It Works

Make the case for your design. How does this environment help students engage deeply in learning, build independence and belonging, and help educators support them effectively?

All slides should:

- Clearly communicate the participant’s original design and thinking.
- Use visuals purposefully to help judges understand the environment.
- Include enough explanation to show why key design decisions were made.
- Follow Educators Rising copyright requirements.

SUMMARY SHEET

- A. Participants will submit a 250–300 word Summary Sheet that helps judges understand the thinking behind their learning environment.

The Summary Sheet must include:

- Names of all contestants
- School, district, and city/state
- Title of the learning environment
- Target grade level and approximate number of students
- Vision for Learning: What do you want students to experience and be able to do in this environment?
- Design Rationale: What are the most important choices you made in designing the space, and why?
- Learning Experience: How does the environment support different ways students learn, interact, create, collaborate, and work independently?
- Learner Needs: How does the design promote accessibility, belonging, agency, and participation for a range of learners?
- Role of the Educator: How does the environment help the teacher observe, facilitate, support, and respond to students?

You do not need to describe every feature of the room. The slide deck should do that already. The summary should reveal your thinking.

- B. The Summary Sheet must be uploaded with the application and will be scored before the conference.

PRESENTATION: An interactive session with judges

- A. At the start of the presentation, participants will give judges two copies of the Summary Sheet. Judges will use it for reference only because it has already been scored.
- B. Each presentation is to be a minimum of three minutes and a maximum of five minutes.
- C. During the presentation, participants should:
 - a. Introduce their vision for the learning environment.
 - b. Walk judges through the most important elements of their design.
 - c. Explain how specific design choices support learning, engagement, collaboration, independence, belonging, and other priorities they identified.

- d. Demonstrate how students and educators would use and experience the space.
 - e. Highlight one or more design choices that challenge traditional assumptions about what a classroom can look like or how it can function.
- D. Presenters will receive a silent signal when one minute remains and will be stopped at five minutes.
- E. Following the presentation, judges will have five minutes to ask questions. Participants should be prepared to explain and defend their design choices, consider how the environment might work for different learners and situations, and respond to questions or scenarios posed by judges. Example. A judge could ask: "A student needs a quiet place to work independently while most of the class is collaborating. How does your design accommodate both?" Or, "Your students are transitioning from a whole-group conversation into small teams. Show us how the space changes."

“Logic will get you from A to B. Imagination will take you everywhere.”

— Albert Einstein

Contest Purpose

Planning, preparing, and delivering effective instruction is the heart of the work of all educators. This competition challenges young educators to plan and deliver a lesson of their choosing to an actual classroom of students. Self-reflection following the lesson is an essential component of this competition; a clear-eyed evaluation of what you’ve done is the best way to learn and make wise choices in the future.

This competition encourages Educators Rising members to try out teaching a lesson in the arts, which includes visual art, music, dance, media arts, and drama. The arts encourage creativity and self-expression and are critical to individual identity and collective culture. Great teachers in these subjects are the linchpins to the flourishing of an enlightened democracy.

For models of excellence, students are strongly encouraged to examine the videos and reflective commentaries of National Board Atlas Videos in the Student Resources section of the EdRising Membership Portal.

Resources to Consider When Creating Your Lesson Plan

Competitors are encouraged to utilize a range of instructional frameworks to design rigorous and engaging lessons:

- Using Bloom’s Taxonomy in Lesson Planning (July 3, 2023, by Niall McNulty)
- Depth of Knowledge \(DOK\)
- UDL
- Differentiation

Models of Accomplished Teaching Practice

Students are strongly encouraged to examine models of excellence by engaging with the videos and accompanying reflective commentaries found in the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards Atlas Videos, available in the Student Resources section of the Educators Rising Membership Portal.

- These resources provide authentic examples of accomplished teaching practice, offering insight into instructional decision-making, student engagement strategies, and reflective professional thinking aligned to high standards of the profession.
- Seeking advice from professionals in the field is encouraged.

Lesson plans should demonstrate meaningful student engagement, problem-solving, and application of learning beyond rote recall.

The Lesson Plan Template may be used but it is not required.

Competition Guidelines

There are three components to this competition:

- A written lesson plan: submitted and scored by judges prior to the national conference.
- A lesson delivery video: submitted and scored by judges prior to the national conference, but also brought by the competitor to the on-site competition [The video is NOT to be screened during the on-site presentation at the national conference; the time is reserved for an interactive reflection.]; and
- A reflection between competitor and on-site judges at the national conference. This includes a student presenting his/her reflections about the lesson as well as an interactive Q&A exchange.

LESSON PLAN: A written lesson plan

- A. The lesson plan must be submitted online, and the competitor must provide his/her name, the name of the classroom teacher and the school where the lesson was taught, the grade level and subject, and date lesson was performed.
- B. The lesson plan should also include the following components: lesson topic, lesson title and overview, learning objectives and aligned standards, vocabulary/concepts, essential questions, lesson cycle/instructional sequence, assessment methods, differentiation and Universal Design for Learning (UDL) strategies, Technology integration, references/resources.

LESSON PLANNING AND DELIVERY COMPETITION

CDA/Early Childhood Education

COMPETITION TYPE: Individual — Closed to spectators

ELIGIBILITY LEVELS: High School Junior Varsity, High School Varsity

EDUCATORS RISING STANDARDS:

- Standard I: Understanding the Profession
- Standard II: Learning About Students
- Standard III: Building Content Knowledge
- Standard IV: Engaging in Responsive Planning
- Standard V: Implementing Instruction
- Standard VI: Using Assessments and Data
- Standard VII: Engaging in Reflective Practice

“The emotional, social and physical development of young children has a direct effect on their overall development and on the adult, they will become. That is why understanding the need to invest in very young children is so important, to maximize their future well-being.”

—National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC)

Contest Purpose

Planning, preparing, and delivering effective instruction is the heart of the work of all educators. Early childhood education (ECE) is a branch of education, which relates to the teaching of young children from birth up until the age of eight. High quality early childhood education programs focus on developing the whole child by supporting the physical, cognitive, and social-emotional development based on children’s individual needs.

This competition encourages Educators Rising members to complete a component of the resource collection from the Child Development Associate (CDA) Credential, a nationally recognized early childhood credential. Then members will try out teaching as an early childhood teacher by planning and implementing learning activities from the CDA resource collection weekly plan (RCI-3) of their creation to children in an actual early childhood classroom. Additional information pertaining to the CDA credential can be found at <http://www.cdacouncil.org/>.

Self-reflection following the lesson is an essential component of this competition; therefore, a reflective presentation will be used to explain how learning needs of young children were supported by the learning activities and an assessment of the outcomes. For models of excellence, students are strongly encouraged to examine the videos and reflective commentaries of National Board Atlas Videos in the Student Resources section of the EdRising Membership Portal.

Competition Guidelines

There are three components to this competition:

- A written weekly plan based on the requirements of the CDA Resource collection: RC I-3: submitted and scored by judges prior to the national conference.
- A learning activities video: submitted and scored by judges prior to the national conference but also brought by the competitor to the on-site competition [The video is NOT to be screened during the on-site presentation at the national conference; the time is reserved for an interactive reflection.]; and
- A reflection between competitor and on-site judges at the national conference. This includes a student presenting his/her reflections about the lesson as well as an interactive Q&A exchange.

LESSON PLAN: A written RCI-3 weekly plan

- A. The RCI-3 weekly plan must be submitted online using the provided form. The entrant will complete all components of form A by providing his/her name, the name of his/her district or career center, the name of the classroom teacher, the date and location where the learning activities were presented, the early childhood age level, the theme and goals of the weekly plan. Form B will include the titles of the weekly plan's learning activities. Form C will include standards, objectives and designation of accommodations for the five implemented learning activities. The RC1-3 must include all components, remain within 4-6 pages, and may be reproduced or enhanced with color, clip art, and/or photos.
- B. Learning activities from five different curriculum areas must be planned and implemented to the designated group of children within the birth through eight years of age range.
- C. Contestants must bring a copy of the RCI-3 weekly plan with them to the competition site.

LESSON DELIVERY: A 10-minute-or-less video

- A. Learning activities from five different curriculum areas included in the weekly plan must be implemented in an actual early childhood classroom with children who are birth to 8 years of age. The classroom supervising teacher may be the entrant's Educators Rising teacher leader.
- B. An 8-10-minute video, clearly depicting the entrant's implementation of the five learning activities, must be submitted online. Given that most learning activities take longer than 10 minutes, your video must be edited to include documentation implementation of the five learning activities. Only the first 10 minutes of the video will be judged.

- C. The video is to be submitted in advance. It must be uploaded to YouTube and be linked on the application form. Videos will not be accepted by mail. The video will not be shown as a part of the presentation. The onsite presentation is dedicated to interactive reflection.
- D. Competitors must bring their video to the competition site on a USB drive.
- E. By submitting a video for this Educators Rising national competition, the competitors are assuming full responsibility for ensuring that all competition materials comply with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) and all applicable local district policies regarding student privacy and data protection. Any submission containing identifiable student information—including, but not limited to, names, faces in the video, voice recordings, voices, or student work samples—must have appropriate documented consent from parents/guardians and/or students, as required by applicable laws and district policies. If permission has not been granted, faces should be blurred or only the back of the students should be visible. By submitting materials, the submitter certifies that all necessary permissions have been obtained and maintained.

REFLECTION: An interactive session with judges

- A. The entrant will have 10 minutes with a panel of judges to reflect on the lesson and to share student- and/or teacher-created artifacts from the lesson. The reflection should include what the entrant felt went well, how to improve, and what was learned from the experience that will help him/her become a better teacher. Note cards or papers containing entrant-generated material to support the reflection are permitted. A slide deck is encouraged only if the use of slides enhances the entrant's communication of his or her reflection. Slide decks are not required. The video will not be shown as a part of this session.

- B. Judges may ask follow-up questions during the 10-minute reflective, interactive session.

“Rigorous, relevant, and results-driven CTE programs are vital to preparing students to succeed in the global economy of the 21st century... Millions of Americans and their families stand to benefit from the transformation and elevation of career and technical education.”

— Former U.S. Secretary of Education Arne Duncan

Contest Purpose

Planning, preparing, and delivering effective instruction is the heart of the work of all educators. This competition challenges young educators to plan and deliver a lesson of their choosing to an actual CTE classroom of students. Self-reflection following the lesson is an essential component of this competition; a clear-eyed evaluation of what you’ve done is the best way to learn and make wise choices in the future.

Educators Rising is a Career and Technical Student Organization. Many Educators Rising chapters across the nation operate as part of a CTE program of study. This competition is an opportunity to explore paying forward that positive experience of being in an excellent CTE program.

This competition encourages Educators Rising members to try out teaching a lesson as a Career Tech teacher. To enter this competition, a student will teach a lesson in a real CTE classroom. CTE programs prepare students to succeed in the world of employment through authentic, real-world experiences and hands-on learning. The CTE programs of the future need exceptional teachers to lead them. For this competition, Educators Rising members must plan and deliver a lesson in any of the 16 Career Clusters or their 79 Career Pathways.

For models of excellence, students are strongly encouraged to examine the videos and reflective commentaries of National Board Atlas Videos in the Student Resources section of the EdRising Membership Portal.

Resources to Consider When Creating Your Lesson Plan

Competitors are encouraged to utilize a range of instructional frameworks to design rigorous and engaging lessons:

- Using Bloom’s Taxonomy in Lesson Planning (July 3, 2023, by Niall McNulty)
- Depth of Knowledge \(DOK\)
- UDL
- Differentiation

Models of Accomplished Teaching Practice

Students are strongly encouraged to examine models of excellence by engaging with the videos and accompanying reflective commentaries found in the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards Atlas Videos, available in the Student Resources section of the Educators Rising Membership Portal.

- These resources provide authentic examples of accomplished teaching practice, offering insight into instructional decision-making, student engagement strategies, and reflective professional thinking aligned to high standards of the profession.
- Seeking advice from professionals in the field is encouraged.

Lesson plans should demonstrate meaningful student engagement, problem-solving, and application of learning beyond rote recall.

The Lesson Plan Template may be used but it is not required.

Competition Guidelines

There are three components to this competition:

- A written lesson plan: submitted and scored by judges prior to the national conference.
- A lesson delivery video: submitted and scored by judges prior to the national conference, but also brought by the competitor to the on-site competition, and
- A reflection between contestant and on-site judges at the national conference. This includes a student presenting his/her reflections about the lesson as well as an interactive Q&A exchange.

LESSON PLAN: A written lesson plan

- A. The lesson plan must be submitted online, and the competitor must provide his/her name, the name of the classroom teacher and the school where the lesson was taught, the grade level and subject, and date lesson was performed.
- B. The lesson plan should also include the following components: lesson topic, lesson title and overview, learning objectives and aligned standards, vocabulary/concepts, essential questions, lesson cycle/instructional sequence, assessment methods, differentiation and Universal Design for Learning (UDL) strategies, Technology integration, references/resources.
- C. The lesson content and grade level are the entrant's decision.

LESSON DELIVERY: A 10-minute-or-less video

- A. The lesson described in the plan must be delivered to an actual classroom of students with the classroom teacher present. The classroom teacher may not be the entrant's Educators Rising teacher leader.
- B. A 10-minute video, clearly depicting the entrant delivering the lesson, must be submitted online along with the lesson plan. Do not exceed the 10-minute length. Only the first 10 minutes of the video will be judged. (Given that most lessons take longer than 10 minutes, your video may be edited to include compilation of important parts of your lesson.)

- C. The video is to be submitted in advance. It must be uploaded to YouTube and be linked on the application form. Videos will not be accepted by mail. The video will not be shown as a part of the presentation. The onsite presentation is dedicated to interactive reflection.
- D. Competitor must bring their video to the competition site on a USB drive.
- E. By submitting a video for this Educators Rising national competition, the competitors are assuming full responsibility for ensuring that all competition materials comply with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) and all applicable local district policies regarding student privacy and data protection. Any submission containing identifiable student information—including, but not limited to, names, faces in the video, voice recordings, voices, or student work samples—must have appropriate documented consent from parents/guardians and/or students, as required by applicable laws and district policies. If permission has not been granted, faces should be blurred or only the back of the students should be visible. By submitting materials, the submitter certifies that all necessary permissions have been obtained and maintained.

REFLECTION: An interactive session with judges

- A. The entrant will have 10 minutes with a panel of judges to engage in a structured reflection on the lesson. During this time, the entrant must demonstrate deep, evidence-based reflection on the full instructional process, including planning, delivery and assessment of student learning. The reflections must include:
 - a. Specific analysis of what was effective and why, supported by examples from the lesson

- b. Identification of areas for improvement including instructional decisions that could be adjusted
 - c. Clear, strategic next steps to enhance future student learning and engagement
 - d. Explanation of what was learned and how it will inform the entrant's development as an educator
- B. A slide deck is optional and should only be used if the use of slides enhances the clarity and organization of the reflection. The quality of the reflection, not the use of visual aids, will be the primary focus of evaluation.
- C. Note cards or papers containing entrant-generated material to support the reflection are permitted.
- D. Judges may ask follow-up questions during the 10-minute reflective, interactive session.

Lesson Plan Submission	Lesson plan is submitted online and includes all required information: all competitors' names, name of the school community where the lesson was taught, the date the lesson was performed, the title of the lesson, the objective of the lesson, description of practice activities, desired outcomes of the lesson, and a method of assessing whether the outcomes were achieved.	Lesson plan is not submitted correctly online, or required information is largely missing, inaccurate, or incomplete.

Clear & High Expectations	Clear and high expectations are evident throughout every aspect of the plan. This means the lesson title, goal, and objective are clearly and prominently stated. Goal and objective reflect expert-level choices; they are relevant and rigorous given the instructional context. The lesson is conceived to realistically achieve upper-level thinking on Bloom's taxonomy, and the plan clearly spells that out. The plan includes a clear alignment to relevant learning standards.	Clear and high expectations are evident throughout most aspects of the plan. This means: The lesson title, goal, and objective are clearly stated and are logical given the instructional context. The expectations articulated in the goal and objective are clearly built into most aspects of the lesson design. The plan suggests alignment to relevant learning standards.	Clear and high expectations are evident throughout some aspects of the plan. This means: The lesson title, goal, and objective are stated and reflect basic levels of rigor and relevance given the instructional context. The plan could benefit from asking more from participants, or from a more strategically designed progression of activities that would be better suited to actually meet high expectations. The plan may offer only superficial information related to learning standards alignment.	Clear and high expectations are evident throughout few or no aspects of the plan. This means: The lesson title, goal, and objective may be missing or unclear or reflect levels of rigor and relevance that may be too low given the instructional context. The plan could benefit from asking much more from participants, or from a revision for clarity. The plan makes no mention of alignment learning standards.

Organizing and Sequencing Content for Participant Learning	The progression of the lesson is clearly articulated and strategically designed to maximize participants' engagement and learning and to meet the lesson's goal and objective.	The progression of the lesson is logically designed to meet the lesson's goal and objective. It could benefit from some more explanation for how each facet of the participants' experience in the lesson will support the achievement of the goal and objective.	The progression of the lesson aims to meet the goal and objective. It needs more detail or a clearer strategy in order to reflect a comprehensive vision of how each facet of the participants' experience in the lesson will support the achievement of the goal and objective.	The progression of the lesson seems inconsistent, unclear, or even at times illogical despite an attempt to achieve the lesson's goal and objective.
Instructional Methods	The lesson plan strategically incorporates multiple methods of instruction (ex. teacher talk, participant talk, teacher- participant interactive talk, participant creation of print or non-print text, gallery walk) to maximize participant engagement and learning and to meet the lesson goal and objective. The use of the instructional methods with the content and goal/objective is expert-level in its conception.	The lesson plan incorporates multiple methods of instruction to attempt to maximize participant engagement and learning and to meet the lesson goal and objective. A more strategic use of the instructional methods with the content and goal/objective would likely yield better participant outcomes.	The lesson plan attempts to incorporate multiple methods of instruction, but the rationale and strategy may lack appropriate levels of clarity, feasibility, or applicability.	The lesson plan reflects a limited understanding of instructional methods to support participant learning, participant engagement, and meeting the goal and objective.
Materials	The lesson plan is clear about what materials will be required. Those materials are expertly chosen to maximize participant engagement and learning and to meet the lesson goal and objective.	The lesson plan is clear about what materials will be required. Those materials apply to the lesson but may not represent the most efficient selection to maximize participant engagement and learning, given the lesson plan's goal and objective.	The lesson plan does include materials to be used but would benefit from greater specificity in their description or strategy in their selection. Not all materials are essential to achieve the lesson's goal.	The lesson plan includes a partial list of materials to be used. The strategy is vague or incomplete in describing how to leverage the use of these materials to support participant engagement and learning to meet the lesson's objective and goal.

“Un gran plan de lecciones no equivale a un gran profesor, sino que un gran profesor ofrece una gran lección a sus estudiantes. Las lecciones de los libros son solo un ingrediente de una gran enseñanza. La grandeza viene cuando se generan valores morales, habilidades creativas y pensamiento crítico entre los estudiantes”.

Finalidad del concurso

Planificar, preparar y ofrecer una instrucción eficaz es el corazón del trabajo de todos los educadores. Este concurso desafía a los educadores jóvenes a planificar e impartir una lección de su elección a estudiantes de un aula real. La autorreflexión después de la lección es un componente esencial de este concurso; una evaluación clara de que lo que ha hecho es la mejor manera de aprender y tomar decisiones sabias en el futuro.

Para este concurso, los miembros de Educators Rising pueden planificar e impartir una lección en cualquier área temática.

Para los modelos de excelencia, se recomienda encarecidamente a los estudiantes que examinen los videos y comentarios reflexivos de los videos del Atlas de la Junta Nacional para las Normas Profesionales en la Enseñanza (National Board for Professional Teaching Standards, NBPTS) en la sección Student Resources (Recursos para estudiantes) del portal de miembros EdRising.

Recursos a tener en cuenta cuando cree su plan de lección

Se recomienda a los competidores utilizar una serie de marcos de instrucción para diseñar lecciones rigurosas y atractivas:

- Uso de la taxonomía de Bloom en la planificación de lecciones (3 de julio de 2023, por Niall McNulty)
- Profundidad del Conocimiento (Depth of Knowledge, DOK)
- Diseño Universal para el Aprendizaje \(Universal Design for Learning, UDL\)
- Diferenciación

Modelos de una práctica docente destacada

Se recomienda encarecidamente a los estudiantes que examinen los modelos de excelencia mediante la revisión de los videos y sus respectivos comentarios reflexivos, los cuales están disponibles en los videos del Atlas de la Junta Nacional para las Normas Profesionales en la Enseñanza, en la sección Recursos para Estudiantes del portal de miembros de Educators Rising.

- Estos recursos proporcionan ejemplos auténticos de prácticas docentes destacadas y ofrecen información sobre la toma de decisiones didácticas, estrategias de participación de los estudiantes y pensamiento profesional reflexivo alineado con los altos estándares de la profesión.
- Se recomienda buscar asesoramiento de profesionales en el campo.

Los planes de lección deben demostrar una participación significativa de los estudiantes, la resolución de problemas y la aplicación del aprendizaje más allá de la memorización.

Se puede utilizar la plantilla del plan de lección, pero no es necesaria.

Directrices del concurso

Este concurso consta de tres componentes:

- Un plan de lecciones escrito: presentado y puntuado por jueces antes de la conferencia nacional.
- Un video de presentación de la lección: debe enviarse para que los jueces lo puntúen antes de la conferencia nacional y, además, el competidor debe llevarlo a la competencia presencial, y
- Un reflejo entre el concursante y los jueces in situ en la conferencia nacional. Esto incluye a un estudiante que presenta sus reflexiones sobre la lección, así como un intercambio interactivo de preguntas y respuestas.

PLAN DE LA LECCIÓN: un plan de la lección por escrito

Planning, preparing, and delivering effective instruction is the heart of the work of all educators. This competition challenges young educators to plan and deliver a lesson of their choosing to an actual classroom of students. Self-reflection following the lesson is an essential component of this competition; a clear-eyed evaluation of what you’ve done is the best way to learn and make wise choices in the future.

This competition encourages Educators Rising members to try out teaching a lesson in science, technology, engineering, or math (STEM). Just as Einstein encourages, here is an opportunity to help students unlock new ways of thinking and seeing by exploring the way the world works. Quality STEM education for all students can lay a path to personal success and long-term national prosperity — and skilled teachers are the keys. Also, America is experiencing a critical shortage of skilled STEM teachers; more and more states are offering salary increases and bonuses for well-prepared STEM educators.

Subject areas eligible for this competition: Science, Technology/Media Arts, Engineering, Mathematics, and Health Science/PE.

For models of excellence, students are strongly encouraged to examine the videos and reflective commentaries of National Board Atlas Videos in the Student Resources section of the EdRising Membership Portal.

Resources to Consider When Creating Your Lesson Plan

Competitors are encouraged to utilize a range of instructional frameworks to design rigorous and engaging lessons:

- Using Bloom’s Taxonomy in Lesson Planning (July 3, 2023, by Niall McNulty)
- Depth of Knowledge \(DOK\)
- UDL
- Differentiation

Models of Accomplished Teaching Practice

Students are strongly encouraged to examine models of excellence by engaging with the videos and accompanying reflective commentaries found in the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards Atlas Videos, available in the Student Resources section of the Educators Rising Membership Portal.

- These resources provide authentic examples of accomplished teaching practice, offering insight into instructional decision-making, student engagement strategies, and reflective professional thinking aligned to high standards of the profession.
- Seeking advice from professionals in the field is encouraged.

Lesson plans should demonstrate meaningful student engagement, problem-solving, and application of learning beyond rote recall.

The Lesson Plan Template may be used but it is not required.

Competition Guidelines

There are three components to this competition:

- A written lesson plan: submitted and scored by judges prior to the national conference.
- A lesson delivery video: submitted and scored by judges prior to the national conference, but also brought by the competitor to the on-site competition [The video is NOT to be screened during the on-site presentation at the national conference; the time is reserved for an interactive reflection.]; and
- A reflection between competitor and on-site judges at the national conference. This includes a student presenting his/her reflections about the lesson as well as an interactive Q&A exchange.

LESSON PLAN: A written lesson plan

- A. The lesson plan must be submitted online, and the competitor must provide his/her name, the name of the classroom teacher and the school where the lesson was taught, the grade level and subject, and date lesson was performed.
- B. The lesson plan should also include the following components: lesson topic, lesson title and overview, learning objectives and aligned standards, vocabulary/concepts, essential questions, lesson cycle/instructional sequence, assessment methods, differentiation and Universal Design for Learning (UDL) strategies, Technology integration, references/resources.
- C. The lesson content and grade level are the entrant's decision.
- B. A 10-minute video, clearly depicting the entrant delivering the lesson, must be submitted online along with the lesson plan. Do not exceed the 10-minute length. Only the first 10 minutes of the video will be judged. (Given that most lessons take longer than 10 minutes, your video may be edited to include compilation of important parts of your lesson.)
- C. The video is to be submitted in advance. It must be uploaded to YouTube and be linked on the application form. Videos will not be accepted by mail. The video will not be shown as a part of the presentation. The onsite presentation is dedicated to interactive reflection.
- D. Competitor must bring their video to the competition site on a USB drive.

LESSON DELIVERY: A 10-minute-or-less video

- A. The lesson described in the plan must be delivered to an actual classroom of students with the classroom teacher present. The classroom teacher may not be the entrant's Educators Rising teacher leader.
- E. By submitting a video for this Educators Rising national competition, the competitors are assuming full responsibility for ensuring that all competition materials comply with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) and all applicable local district policies regarding student privacy and data protection. Any submission containing identifiable student information—including, but not limited to, names, faces in the video, voice recordings, voices, or student work samples—must have appropriate documented consent from parents/guardians and/or students, as required by applicable laws and district policies. If permission has not been granted, faces should be blurred or only the back of the students should be visible. By submitting materials, the submitter certifies that all necessary permissions have been obtained and maintained.

REFLECTION: An interactive session with judges

- A. The entrant will have 10 minutes with a panel of judges to engage in a structured reflection on the lesson. During this time, the entrant must demonstrate deep, evidence-based reflection on the full instructional process, including planning, delivery and assessment of student learning. The reflections must include:
 - a. Specific analysis of what was effective and why, supported by examples from the lesson

- b. Identification of areas for improvement including instructional decisions that could be adjusted
 - c. Clear, strategic next steps to enhance future student learning and engagement
 - d. Explanation of what was learned and how it will inform the entrant's development as an educator
- B. A slide deck is optional and should only be used if the use of slides enhances the clarity and organization of the reflection. The quality of the reflection, not the use of visual aids, will be the primary focus of evaluation.
- C. Note cards or papers containing entrant-generated material to support the reflection are permitted.
- D. Judges may ask follow-up questions during the 10-minute reflective, interactive session.

EDUCATORS RISING

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT-TEACHER RECRUITMENT COMPETITION

COMPETITION TYPE: Team - Closed to spectators

ELIGIBILITY LEVELS: High School Junior Varsity, High School Varsity, Collegiate

EDUCATORS RISING STANDARDS:

- Standard I: Understanding the Profession
- Standard VII: Engaging in Reflective Practice

As of October 2022, 18 percent of public schools had one teaching vacancy and 27 percent had multiple teaching vacancies, according to data released by the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES)

Contest Purpose

A public service announcement (PSA) is a short informational clip that is meant to raise the audience's awareness about an important issue. The purpose of the Public Service Announcement-Teacher Recruitment Competition is to allow Educators Rising students to create a NEW public service announcement, appropriate for television and/or social media, to attract young people to consider teaching in their future career goals.

Students will collaboratively problem-solve as they produce a creative, multimedia video clip designed to elevate the image of teaching by communicating the value of the profession. The PSA should evoke strong positive emotions about the profession causing the viewer to consider the worth of the profession as an important career. This competition affords the student an opportunity to sharpen his or her skills as both a leader and a productive team member.

The students must work together to develop a one to two-minute video and a live, 10-minute presentation that would appeal to anyone looking for smart ways to recruit new teachers and to the teacher candidates themselves.

Preparation Tips

- Collaborate as a team to brainstorm an innovative marketing strategy to recruit new teachers
- Do some real legwork in learning about your selected marketing strategy by talking to local leaders and/or conducting internet research.
- Collect feedback regarding your marketing strategy from at least three different sources.
- Use creativity and original ideas when creating your video and crafting your live presentation.
- Work collaboratively as a team, with each team member filling a specific role (ex. director, lead researcher, etc.). Highlight your team's experiences as well as personal opinions in your video.
- Obtain the necessary permission from all students and teachers who appear in the video.
- Have a video credits page citing any source media or permissions acquired for the use of any copyrighted material. (Educators Rising recommends avoiding copyrighted material.)
- Have a title screen including the title of your project, competition name, school name, city, and state.
- Preview your final video to ensure that the sound quality is good, and that video playback is smooth.

Research

The following are research resources that may be helpful concerning your topic:

- Your school or local school district website
- Online articles regarding research-proven marketing strategies to support the strategy you choose
- Interviews with local education leaders (teachers, principals, superintendent, district academic officers, etc.)

PUBLIC SPEAKING COMPETITION

COMPETITION TYPE: Individual — Open to spectators

ELIGIBILITY LEVELS: High School Junior Varsity, High School Varsity, Collegiate

EDUCATORS RISING STANDARDS:

- Standard I: Understanding the Profession
- Standard II: Learning About Students
- Standard VII: Engaging in Reflective Practice

Contest Purpose

Self-composure, confidence, and the ability to articulate and communicate information are valuable skills for all educators. The Public Speaking Competition is designed to highlight students who demonstrate these qualities by combining thoughtful preparation and confident delivery into an interesting presentation on a current education topic.

Students participating in this competition will prepare and deliver a speech of approximately 400 to 600 words, equivalent to three to five minutes when spoken aloud, on the assigned topic. Competitors will present their speeches before on-site judges and spectators. Because spectators may enter or exit the presentation space at any time, competitors should be prepared to maintain focus and continue their presentation despite potential distractions.

Assigned Topic

The topic for the 2027 Public Speaking Competition:

Career Connected Learning: Building Bridges Through Community Partnerships

PROMPT:

"Partnerships between industry and school districts to increase the frequency of career-connected learning could increase knowledge of local and regional opportunities and pique learner interest... Creating opportunities for learners to engage in career-connected learning during the school day in their core courses mitigates barriers presented by transportation, geography, or conflicting school schedules."

— Advance CTE & Gallup, Research Round-up: Impact of Career-Connected Learning on Learner Engagement and Hope (2024)

For too long, traditional high schools operated in isolation, treating education as something that only happens within the four walls of a classroom. Today, the rapid evolution of global and local economies demands a shift. True integration of Career and Technical Education (CTE) cannot happen in a vacuum; it requires deep, intentional partnerships between school districts, regional industry leaders, and community stakeholders to provide students with authentic mentorship, internships, and work-based learning.

As a Rising Educator, you have a unique perspective and valuable responsibility to analyze how schools bridge the gap between academic theory and workforce reality. How do community and industry partnerships transform a student's academic journey from textbook learning into a purposeful career pathway? How can schools strategically design these programs to ensure hands-on opportunities are distributed equitably, mitigating systemic geographic or socioeconomic barriers for all learners? Deliver your vision and show us how we can lead the way forward.

RESEARCHING LEARNING CHALLENGES COMPETITION

COMPETITION TYPE: Team — Closed to spectators

ELIGIBILITY LEVELS: High School Junior Varsity, High School Varsity

EDUCATORS RISING STANDARDS:

- Standard I: Understanding the Profession
- Standard II: Learning About Students
- Standard VI: Using Assessments and Data
- Standard VII: Engaging in Reflective Practice

Contest Purpose

Approximately 7.5 million students (15% of all public-school students) in American public schools have been diagnosed with learning disabilities and receive special education services. (Citation: <https://nces.ed.gov/programs/coe/indicator/cgg/students-with-disabilities>) Understanding how to support students with special needs is central to success as an educator. This competition offers Educators Rising students the opportunity to explore deeply and to develop recommendations regarding effective educational supports for students with special needs.

The Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) groups students into fourteen disability categories. They are:

- | | |
|----------------------------|---|
| 1. Autism | 8. Multiple disabilities |
| 2. Deaf-blindness | 9. Orthopedic impairment |
| 3. Deafness | 10. Other health impairments |
| 4. Developmental delay | 11. Specific learning disability (e.g., dyslexia) |
| 5. Emotional disturbance | 12. Speech or language impairment |
| 6. Hearing impairment | 13. Traumatic brain injury |
| 7. Intellectual disability | 14. Visual impairment, including blindness |

This year's competition focuses on the specific learning disability involving traumatic brain injury.

According to the National Center for Education Statistics Digest of Education Statistics, based on the U.S. Department of Education's 2022–2023 IDEA Section 618 data collection, approximately 25,000 students ages 3–21 in U.S. public schools were served under the category of traumatic brain injury (TBI), representing about 0.3% of all students receiving services under IDEA Part B (NCES, December 2023).

Students with traumatic brain injury face a wide range of educational challenges, including difficulties with cognitive functioning, memory, attention, executive functioning, communication, behavior regulation, and social-emotional development. These difficulties can significantly affect academic performance, classroom participation, and peer relationships. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) notes that the effects of TBI may be temporary or lifelong and can interfere with learning, behavior, and physical functioning, often necessitating individualized educational supports and accommodations to promote successful school outcomes (<https://www.cdc.gov/traumatic-brain-injury/CDC>, 2024).

The purpose of this competition is to work collaboratively to learn more about this specific learning challenge and to produce a research-supported position paper and presentation to explain and advocate for positive practices in schools to support the education of students with traumatic brain injuries. Imagine that the local school board has asked you: “What specific steps should we take to support the education of students with traumatic brain injuries? How can inclusive education be optimized for students with traumatic brain injuries? Also, why should we accept your recommendations?”

Team members should research the educational experiences, challenges, and supports for students with traumatic brain injuries in K-12 schools and recommend the best practices to support the education of students with this learning challenge. You are encouraged to embark on this research using traditional sources as well as primary sources (ex. conducting interviews with individuals impacted by this disability or professionals who support individuals with this disability, etc.). Then team members should discuss the research to determine recommendations for their paper and presentation.

Team members will collaborate on a research-supported position paper, which will be no shorter than four full pages and no longer than six full pages, to offer their recommendations. The minimum number of student collaborators is two, but there is no maximum. The position paper must include cited references in APA style and a works cited sheet, which will not count toward the four-to-six-page length requirement. (Also, the title page doesn’t count toward the length requirement. If you are unable to reach the minimum length required, resume the research process — there is a lot of quality material out there on this topic.) The position paper will be submitted with the competition application and will be scored by judges prior to the national conference.

Competition Guidelines

There are three components to this competition:

- A position paper, submitted and scored by judges prior to the national conference, and
- A parent-teacher resource deliverable that translates into practical, real-world support tools for students with disabilities, submitted and scored by judges prior to the national conference, and
- An interactive session (including a presentation) with judges on-site at the national conference.

- A. Team members will use the information collected in the research phase to collaborate in creating three products: a position paper, a parent-teacher resource, and a slide deck presentation.
- B. The position paper will include a title page, a works cited page (using APA citation style), and four to six full pages of research-supported recommendations with appropriate context. The paper should draw on at least three relevant and credible sources, including at least one primary source, such as interview, survey, observation, or firsthand account. The works cited and title pages will not count towards the four-to-six-page length. The position paper must be submitted online.
- C. The slide deck presentation (ex. PowerPoint, Prezi) should engagingly complement and deliver the team’s research findings and recommendations.
- D. The deliverable should be an original practical, implementation focused resource that could be used in a school setting (such as informational brochure, family advocacy handbook, parent guide for supporting students with disabilities, classroom accommodation guide, or family-school communication toolkit). The resource must be supported by research, include information for families and educators, provide practical strategies for supporting students, include at least 3 evidence-based recommendations and cite sources used in development. Deliverable must be submitted online.

E. At the Educators Rising National Conference, qualifying representatives (two to four students) must present to a panel of expert judges for up to 10 minutes about their research using the slide deck as their visual aid. Students will also respond to judges' questions on the assigned topic and presentation; the entire interactive session with judges may last up to 15 minutes.

F. Slide deck must be brought to the conference on a USB drive and files must be accessible without internet access. If students plan to use their own devices for presentation, students must be able to connect their device via HDMI to an external projector without assistance.

TEACHER CREATED MATERIALS CONTEST

COMPETITION TYPE: Individual/Dual — Closed to spectators

ELIGIBILITY LEVELS: High School Junior Varsity, High School Varsity

EDUCATORS RISING STANDARDS:

- Standard I: Understanding the Profession
- Standard III: Building Content Knowledge
- Standard V: Implementing Instruction

Contest Purpose

Teachers know how to bring out the best in their students. They've gotten to know each student as an individual, and what they enjoy, and whether they learn best through board games, crafts, music, or something else. Therefore, creating your own materials as a teacher is one of the most rewarding challenges of the profession. You get to account for your students' unique needs while engaging them in a fun activity and achieving learning objectives.

Teacher Created Materials encompass all the materials and physical means a teacher might use to implement a lesson and facilitate the student's achievement of the objectives. This may include materials such as flip charts, board games, folder games, puppets, lap books, etc. This contest allows you to showcase how you would meet this challenge by creating your own materials for a lesson of your choosing and presenting it to judges.

Contest Guidelines

- A. The display should include:
 - a. A Summary Sheet (250-300-word) in a folder containing:
 - i. The names of all contestants.
 - ii. Their school, district, and city/state

H. The presentation should include:

- a. An overview of the Summary Sheet
- b. The educational significance of the materials – how could they be used in a classroom to enhance learning?
- c. An assessment of the value or benefit of the materials to the target audience.

- I. A five-minute Q&A section will follow the presentation to allow judges to ask questions.
- J. Contestants will take their materials with them after the presentation.
